ATTACHMENT TO PTOL-303

The proposed claim amendments create new issues which would require further consideration. Whether or not the reasons for rejection of record would apply to the claims in the same manner as to those claims previously considered cannot be decided without a reexamination on merits. Also, the claims would require reexamination on merits to ascertain whether there are any new reasons for rejection which are not of record. This would extend the prosecution substantially beyond that contemplated for this stage of the prosecution. See MPEP 714.12, last paragraph.

The final rejection is maintained.
